The Numismatic Bookseller

Originally issued as a fixed-price list but morphing into something of a house organ, Kolbe's Numismatic Bookseller, with articles and other material included, provided a variety of offerings for the numismatic bibliophile. A dozen Kolbe auctions were also conducted in its pages, making a set necessary to those who wish to complete a set of his auction catalogues.

Vol. I (1984), complete, including the stand-alone Auction XVI catalogue. . . . . $40

Vol. III (1986), complete, including Auctions XXV, XXVII and XXX. . . . . $30

Vol. IV (1987), complete, including Auctions XXXI and XXXIII. . . . . $30

A complete set of 49 printed numbers (1984–2009), including all accompanying auction catalogues. . . . . $350

A nearly complete set of 48 printed numbers (1984–2009), including all accompanying auction catalogues, lacking only No. 45. . . . . $300

A nearly complete set of 47 printed numbers (1984–2009), including all accompanying auction catalogues, lacking only Nos. 42 and 45. . . . . $250

To order, email items wanted to orders@numislit.com or call (614) 414-0855. Quantities are limited. Postage: $5 flat rate per order in the U.S. Free shipping on orders of $100 or over. Foreign shipping at cost.

Note: a number of the limited edition hardcover catalogues issued by George F. Kolbe can be purchased through our website at numislit.com. We can also supply most (but not all) of the Kolbe & Fanning sales in either softcover or hardcover. Contact us for details.
