Collins & Breen on the 1794 Dollar

11 Collins, Jack, and Walter Breen. 1794: THE HISTORY AND GENEALOGY OF THE FIRST UNITED STATES DOLLAR. Crestline: George F. Kolbe and Alan Meghrig, 2007. 4to, original spiral-bound plastic covers. (16), 269, (15) pages. Fine.

Retail Value $200

One of only 99 copies printed, bringing to light this important manuscript as it existed at the time of Collins's death in 1996 (Breen having died in 1993). The manuscript was nearly complete, and includes chapters exploring the history of the dollar, its American adoption and adaptation, the people behind the creation of the first U.S. dollars, fakes and fantasy pieces, and, perhaps most importantly, a condition census for the 1794 dollar that sought to not only describe but illustrate every surviving example of this foundational coinage. While most of the illustrations throughout the text were not yet entered into the manuscript by Collins, most of the coins included in the census are illustrated, and the value of this posthumous contribution by Collins and Breen is considerable.

Inscribed by Elder to Virgil Brand on front flyleaf. Fine.

Retail Value $500

Adams 21. A truly notable sale of American coins, especially important for large cents. At the head of that section, Elder terms it “the finest collection ever sold at auction” and notes that “Most of these choice pieces were purchased by Mr. Wilson at the Frothingham sale in May, 1883. Several are from the Parmelee collection.” Two paragraphs in the preface are devoted to the private gold collection, “one of the best that has ever been offered.” Eight of the plates illustrate large cents; three plates depict United States gold coins; there are four plates of silver dollars, two of halves and one each of quarters and dimes; two plates depict pattern silver dollars and ten early half dimes; three plates illustrate ancient, medieval and modern foreign coins; and four plates depict pioneer gold rarities. Elder boasts in his introduction that the plated edition contains more plates than any other previous numismatic sale, which appears to be the case. Adams 21 (rated A+ overall, and A in large cents, proofs, early and late silver, and private gold). An impressive copy of a notable sale.

Retail Value $50

An interesting publication, of which only twelve numbers were issued. It is probably best known today for events that transpired after it had ceased publication. In 1888, Dr. George Heath titled the first issue of what became the official publication of the American Numismatic Association, The American Numismatist. Thereafter the name was shortened to The Numismatist, probably to avoid conflict with the publication at hand, which had ceased publication several months earlier. An interesting and detailed article was published concerning this periodical by Joel J. Orosz in his "Printer's Devil" column appearing in the Winter 1997 issue of The Asylum.

Scarce Steigerwalt Periodical

40 Steigerwalt, Chas. THE COIN JOURNAL. Vol. III, No. (1). Lancaster, January–March, 1882. 4to, self-covered as issued. Folded. Edges chipped; separating at fold. Good.

Retail Value $25

Steigerwalt's various periodical publications are all very difficult to collect, and this lot illustrates the bibliographical complexity that partly accounts for this difficulty: not only did he use the same name for two separate periodicals, but he left the number off this particular issue. While Steigerwalt went on to publish a couple of other periodicals, he mercifully became amenable to more varied titles later in life. Most of the Steigerwalt periodicals are at least scarce, and many of them are downright rare.

1874 Groux Sale, with Plate

41 Strobridge, William H. CATALOGUE OF THE ENTIRE CABINET OF ANTIQUE, MEDIEVAL AND MODERN COINS, MEDALS AND JETONS, FOR MANY YEARS KNOWN AND CELEBRATED AS THE GROUX COLLECTION, NOW THE PROPERTY OF A LADY IN WASHINGTON. New York: Leavitt, April 7–9, 1874. 8vo, original printed paper covers. iv, (3)–57, (1) pages; 1173 lots; 1 very fine photographic plate featuring deep, rich impressions. Spine a little worn; contents near fine.

Retail Value $150

Scarce with the fine photographic plate. Strobridge's introduction borders on the poetic and is well worth reading: "The 'Groux Collection,' which has had a name in American numismatology for the last quarter of a century, is now before the public, with the veil removed. ... The fond old dreamer whose name it bears has himself passed away, and the fate that befalleth all collections is about to come also upon the one with which he had freely mingled his very life." Adams 17: "Carrara medals. Proof 1829, 1830 5¢. Papal, 'ghostly' coinage. A collection of the widest scope."

Important 1874 Ancient Coin Sale

42 Strobridge, William H. CATALOGUE OF A PRIVATE COLLECTION OF ANCIENT COINS, AND AT THE CLOSE A FEW MODERN COINS, WITH AN ADDENDA. New York: Leavitt, October 6–9, 1874. 8vo, original printed paper covers. 106 pages; 480 lots. Cover has tears and stains; very good.

Retail Value $30

Adams 19. A serious and scholarly catalogue by Strobridge, featuring a fine and extensive collection of Greek and Roman coins. The collection was that of Commodore Edward Middleton, and was exceptional for an American cabinet of ancient coins. Unfortunately, the sale met with disappointing results; Attinelli felt that the U.S. market wasn't advanced enough to absorb such a large number of fine Greek and Roman coins at once, rendering the owner a heavy loss.

The Parmelee Duplicates

44 Strobridge, William H. CATALOGUE OF A VALUABLE COLLECTION OF COINS AND MEDALS, MADE BY AN AMATEUR, AND NOW THE PROPERTY OF LORING (sic) G. PARMELEE, ESQ., OF BOSTON, MASS. WITH AN IMPORTANT ADDENDA, BELONGING TO J. AUGUSTUS JOHNSON, ESQ. (LATE U.S. CONSUL GEN. FOR SYRIA). New York, Leavitt, June 12, 1876 and following. 8vo, original printed wraps. vi, 137, (1) pages; 2557 lots, plus 352-lot addenda; woodcut of shekel. Front cover nearly detached; else near fine.

Retail Value $60

More duplicates from the Parmelee collection: duplicates so good they merit an A+ overall rating by Adams. These originated in the Brevoort collection, which Parmelee purchased en masse. The addenda was withdrawn (Low claims in his 117th sale that it was "privately disposed of for $700"). Adams 26 (rated A in colonials, medals, Washingtonia and ancients). Clain-Stefanelli 12046.

1850 Mint Report: $36 Million in California Gold Received

Retail Value $250

The 1850 Mint Report, as transmitted by President Millard Fillmore and written by Mint Director Robert Patterson. Mint Reports from this period are decidedly scarce. Funding the San Francisco Mint

48 United State Government. MINT AT SAN FRANCISCO. LETTER FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY, IN REFERENCE TO THE MINT AT SAN FRANCISCO, AND TRANSMITTING AN ESTIMATE OF EXPENSES FOR ONE YEAR. Washington, DC, August 31, 1852. 32d Congress, 1st Session, Ex. Doc. No. 132. 8vo, self-covered. 2 pages. Removed from previous binding and somewhat foxed. Good or better.

Retail Value $100

An early San Francisco Mint document from before the Mint opened its doors for business on April 3, 1854. Issued shortly after President Fillmore signed the bill authorizing the establishment of the Mint on July 8, 1852, this document, from Acting Secretary of the Treasury William L. Hodge to Speaker Linn Boyd, speaks forcefully against the idea being suggested in Washington that $300,000 be the sum allocated for the establishment of the Mint, an amount Hodge finds "entirely inadequate."
